International Human Rights Litigator Abbe Jolles, Summary Bio.

Abbe Jolles is a Washington, DC based International Human Rights Litigator. (www.AJGlobalLegal.com) She provides representation worldwide including conflict zones. She handles individual, corporate, criminal and civil cases involving unlawful property confiscation, incarceration or risk of incarceration and immigration and global migration.

She has represented thousands of accused domestically and internationally. She has tried hundreds of cases.

She works with governments securing prisoner release. She has gained years of international criminal diplomacy experience worldwide, including Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

Abbe advises the US House and Senate on vital human rights issues including extradition, international organization corruption and whistleblower matters. She represents Congressional witnesses and has testified as a human rights expert. Abbe co- authored a bi-partisan proposal for UN Management Reform for the US Congress. She also represents those seeking government security clearances.

She is an Executive Officer and founding member of NGO Hear Their Cries (HTC). HTC has its HQ in Geneva, Switzerland. HTC fights child sexual assault worldwide focusing on the Aid Industry. HTC acted as Amicus in the US Supreme Court, in the Haitian Cholera case.

Abbe was the first American woman admitted to the International Criminal Court and the first American admitted to the African Court on Human and People's Rights.

Abbe is admitted to the United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (UNICTR) where she achieved a landmark case. She is also admitted to the United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) where she served on the Discipline Council as a judicial advisor, Special Court of Sierra Leone (SCSL) and Special Tribunal of Lebanon (STL), the world's first terrorism court. Abbe has trained lawyers and journalists in Lebanon.

Abbe is a principal consultant for Global Insight, (www.gi-adr.com), working throughout Asia, with offices in Hong Kong, Thailand and The Philippines. She provides advocacy and advisory services in their Forensic Services practice.

She represents those in workplace disputes worldwide including before the United Nations Dispute and Appeals Tribunals, (UNDT, UNAT) New York, Nairobi, and Geneva.

She handles immigration matters domestically and internationally, including investor (EB-5) visas.

Abbe attended Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, London School of Economics, London, England and the University of Oregon School of Law in Eugene, Oregon. She speaks French and English.
